

Gospel Reflection

Mark 16:1-8

We can reflect on the courage of these women who made their way to Jesus' tomb. All of the disciples had fled, in fear, despair, disillusionment, at the events which had taken place. But somehow these women still wanted to love and serve Jesus, even in his death, even when everything seemed to indicate that it was the end... May we take inspiration from this small group of women who loved Jesus so much, and who ultimately were not disappointed but were the first to hear that he had risen, impossible as it seemed!

WARM WELCOME TO OUR SPIRITUAL FAMILY.

Dear Julie, Peter, John, Chris and Alasdair, on behalf of the entire Catholic community and our parishes, we extend a heartfelt welcome to each of you as you have recently been welcomed into full communion with the Catholic Church. Your decision to embrace the Catholic faith is a momentous occasion and we are overjoyed to have you as part of our spiritual family.

May your journey in faith be filled with blessings, grace and profound spiritual growth. Know that you are surrounded by a community of supportive and loving individuals who are here to walk alongside you every step of the way.

As you continue to deepen your relationship with God and explore the richness of our Catholic traditions, may you find comfort, peace and joy in your newfound faith.

Once again, welcome to the Catholic Church! We are excited to share this journey of faith with you.

FIRST READING

Acts 10:34,37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 117(118):1-2,16-17,22-23

Response: This day was made by the Lord: we rejoice and are glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.
Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love has no end.'

R/

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.
I shall not die, I shall live
and recount his deeds.

R/

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 5:6-8

You must know how even a small amount of yeast is enough to leaven all the dough, so get rid of all the old yeast, and make yourselves into a completely new batch of bread, unleavened as you are meant to be. Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast, then, by getting rid of all the old yeast of evil and wickedness, having only the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

SEQUENCE

Victimae Paschali Laudes

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.
The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb;
and Christ, the undefiled,
hath sinners to his Father reconciled.
Death with life contended:
combat strangely ended!
Life's own Champion, slain,
yet lives to reign.
Tell us, Mary:
say what thou didst see
upon the way.
The tomb the Living did enclose;
I saw Christ's glory as he rose!
The angels there attesting;
shroud with grave-clothes resting.
Christ, my hope, has risen:
he goes before you into Galilee.
That Christ is truly risen
from the dead we know.
Victorious king, thy mercy show!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1Cor5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed:
let us celebrate the feast then,
in the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 16:1-8

When the sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James,
and Salome, bought spices with which to go and anoint him. And very early in the morning on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, just as the sun was rising.

They had been saying to one another,
'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' But when they looked they could see that the stone – which was very big – had already been rolled back. On entering the tomb they saw a young man in a white robe seated on the right-hand side, and they were struck with amazement. But he said to them,
'There is no need for alarm. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen, he is not here.
See, here is the place where they laid him. But you must go and tell his disciples and Peter, "He is going before you to Galilee; it is there you will see him, just as he told you."'

PRAYER BEFORE THE HOMILY

We will make our lives your dwelling place.
We will build your throne in our hearts.
Come Father,
Come Son,
Come Holy Spirit,
O come and take your place in our lives.

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH NO. 1

We proclaim your Death, O Lord and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
