

St Joseph's (Highland) Deanery Pilgrimage Tain 10 August 2024

The Church of St. Duthac of Tain was built between 1370 and 1459, to house the relics of the saint, and as a focus for devotion. Such was Duthac's reputation, that Tain became a major centre of pilgrimage and attracted the kings to set up and endow chantries there.

Venue: St. Vincent (Cameron Rd, Tain
IV19 1NN)

Time: Mass at 11:30am.
