Our Lady of Aberdeen

Devotion to Our Lady of Aberdeen stems back at least to Bishop Gavin Dunbar (1514-1531) when a statue of the Madonna and Child was placed by him in a chapel near the Bridge of Dee. It was saved from destruction during the Reformation, and eventually found its way to Brussels. It continues to be venerated there under the title of Notre Dame du Bon Succès (Our Lady of Good Success). A number of copies are the object of devotion here in Scotland.

St Augustine Zhao Rong (1746-1815) and Companions are commemorated as 120 Chinese martyrs who suffered between 1648 and 1930. They include European missionaries, such as St Gregory Grassi (1823-1900), the Italian born Bishop of North Shanxi martyred during the Boxer Rebellion, and indigenous Christians, such as St Augustine Zhao Rong, a diocesan priest put to death in 1815. They were canonised by St John Paul II in 2000.

Saint Benedict (480-547) was born at Norcia, north-east of Rome, where he went to study law. He was appalled by the immorality of the city, and abandoned it, going to Subiaco, east of Rome, where he became a religious hermit. Gradually others were attracted to join him and communities were set up which he directed. Local jealousies made it unwise for him to stay so he set up anew at Monte Cassino, south of Rome. His influence was widespread: many came from Rome to consult him, and many monasteries were founded elsewhere, so that his way of life and thinking had a huge civilizing effect on Europe, which made Pope St Paul VI name him Patron of Europe in 1964.
