Pope Leo XIV: We must do everything to sustain the family.

Pope Leo XIV reaffirmed in his remarks to the Pontifical John Paul II Theological Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family that "everywhere and always, we are called to sustain, defend and promote the family." Observing that the challenges are diverse across different social, economic and cultural contexts, he said that the faithful must support the family at all times, "above all through a way of life coherent with the Gospel." The proclamation of the Gospel, which, the Holy Father marvelled, transforms life and society, "commits us to promote organic and concerted actions in support of the family."
