Annual Mass at Scaln

The Annual Mass at Scaln is arranged for Sunday, June 14th, at 16:00. The site will be open for an hour before and after the Mass. All are Welcome! Please note this exciting event is a week later than usual, but the usual guidance applies - appropriate footwear and clothing is advisable and that the grass in front of the seminary is uneven.

St Bernadine of Siena

St Bernadine of Siena became a Franciscan friar and preached very effectively all over Italy, using colloquial language and popular imagery. He refused three times to become a bishop because it would interfere with his freedom to be a travelling preacher. He promoted devotion to the Holy Name Of Jesus and gave us the HIS monogram.

Dear brothers and sisters, you are warmly invited to a short parish discussion this Wednesday immediately after the 7.00pm Mass. Following recent guidance from the bishops, the Diocese is seeking the views of parishioners regarding possible adjustments to diocesan boundaries and the sharing of resources between dioceses. This is part of a wider reflection taking place across the Church at this time. This meeting will be an opportunity for us to listen, reflect and share our thoughts in a simple and prayerful way. Your voice is important and all are encouraged to take part.

CONFESSION: call by the Parish House, phone, or email to make an appointment.

ROSARY: Marydale Every Wed. at 5:00pm, Fort Augustus Every Wed. at 7:00pm.
