Pope Leo XIV asks for prayers

Pope Leo called for prayers for all the faithful, living and deceased, who suffer or have suffered because of the "brutality" of the war in Ukraine. He also urges the faithful to implore God for peace in the world and in families.

Don't forget Pope Leo's July prayer intentions inviting Catholics to pray for respect for human life, 'so all may recognise and protect the unique and unrepeatable value of every human being.'

A new book by Pope Leo XIV

The book by Pope Leo XIV is entitled Disarmed and Disarming: Peace Is a Gift. And brings together Pope Leo's addresses and reflections on peace since his election on 8 May 2025. The collection will soon be available in English, opens with a previously unpublished text by the Pope.

Catholic Bishops of Scotland offer Congratulations

The Catholic Bishops of Scotland have written to the Prime Minister, Andy Burnham, offering their congratulations on his appointment and assuring him of their prayers and good wishes as he begins this important public service.

As a Catholic, the Prime Minister will be familiar with the Church's enduring commitment to the dignity of every human person and to the promotion of the common good – principles which lie at the heart of Catholic social teaching. We hope these values will underpin his leadership, particularly in serving the poor, the vulnerable and those on the margins of society, and in advancing the cause of peace, justice and reconciliation both at home and abroad.

We assure the Prime Minister of our prayers for wisdom, courage and integrity as he undertakes the responsibilities of this high office. We look forward to working constructively with him and his Government on the many issues that affect the lives and wellbeing of individuals, families and communities, and we pray that the United Kingdom will continue to use its influence in the service of peace, justice and human dignity throughout the world.

Bishop John Keenan, President of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of Scotland
