St Pius of Pietrelcina

Padre Pio Born of poor parents in Pietrelcina, Italy, Francesco entered the Capuchins at the age of 16, taking the name Pio. In 1918 he received the visible stigmata, the wounds of Christ. For the next 50 years pilgrims flocked to the convent, where Padre Pio reconciled many to Christ in the confessional. 'Pray, hope and don't worry. Worry is useless, God is merciful and He will hear your prayer.' He died in 1968 and was canonised in 2002
