TODAY we celebrate Remembrance Sunday-As we come together in this latest remembrance edition of our Army Roman Catholic newsletter, we pause to remember with thankfulness and prayer all those who have served in the Armed Forces and made the ultimate sacrifice. May we honour their memory not only through remembrance, but by continuing to uphold the values of faith, duty, comradeship and service for which they gave so much. Diocese of Aberdeen website

St Leo the Great (c.390-461) is one of the great Doctors of the Church in Western Europe. His letters and homilies appear frequently in matins in the Divine Office. To the ecumenical council of Chalcedon meeting near Constantinople in 451, he sent his 'Dogmatical Letter' which declared that Christ, in his one divine person, had two natures, human and divine (called the hypostatic union) a teaching that the council hailed as 'the voice of Peter'. The following year, he met Atilla the Hun and persuaded him to abandon the invasion of the Italian peninsula.
