Let us continue to pray for our seminarians:
Anh Tuan Nguyen, Richard Webster, Jason Nunes and Victor Ezeajughu.

TODAY we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, and tomorrow Monday we remember All Souls. Let us extend our charity beyond death: with prayer, Mass, and penance offered for fathers, mothers, family, friends, and strangers who await the fullness of mercy.

News in brief

Archbishop Cushley welcomes honour for Pope Leo

Archbishop Leo Cushley of St Andrews & Edinburgh, has welcomed the announcement that Pope Leo XIV has accepted an invitation to become Papal Confrater of St George's Chapel at Windsor Castle.

What does this mean? The appointment represents "a visible sign of spiritual fellowship, ecumenical friendship and Christian fraternity". It recognises the centuries-old relationship between the College and Chapel of St George and the Holy See, as well as progress in relations between the Catholic Church, the Church of England and the Anglican Communion.

Archbishop Cushley, the Bishop President for Ecumenical Relations of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland, said: "This honour follows the King's own appointment as Royal Confrater of the Papal Basilica and Abbey of St Paul's Outside the Walls in Rome during his State Visit to the Vatican in October last year." Vatican news

Pope's visit confirmed: 'I look forward to returning to Latin America'

Pope Leo XIV expresses joy and enthusiasm about his upcoming Apostolic Journey to Latin America, as the Holy See Press Office confirms his visit to Uruguay, Argentina, and Peru on November 6-17. Pope Leo said: "I am looking forward to returning to the continent where I've experienced so many moments of my life, may this journey be an occasion for us to open our hearts to one another, strengthen our communion as brothers and sisters, and renew our commitment to proclaiming the Gospel with joy." Vatican news
